(c) PROTECTION OF PERSONS SUBJECT TO SUBPOENAS.

(1) A party or an attorney responsible for the issuance and service of a subpoena shall take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to that subpoena. The court on behalf of which the subpoena was issued shall enforce this duty and impose upon the party or attorney in breach of this duty an appropriate sanction, which may include, but is not limited to, lost earnings and a reasonable attorney's fee.

(2) (A) A person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying of designated books, papers, documents or tangible things, or inspection of premises need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless commanded to appear for deposition, hearing or trial.

(B) Subject to paragraph (d)(2) of this rule, a person commanded to produce and permit inspection and copying may, within 14 days after service of the subpoena or before the time specified for compliance if such time is less than 14 days after service, serve upon the party or attorney designated in the subpoena written objection to inspection or copying of any or all of the designated materials or of the premises. If objection is made, the party serving the subpoena shall not be entitled to inspect and copy the materials or inspect the premises except pursuant to an order of the court by which the subpoena was issued. If objection has been made, the party serving the subpoena may, upon notice to the person commanded to produce, move at any time for an order to compel the production. Such an order to compel production shall protect any person who is not a party or an officer of a party from significant expense resulting from the inspection and copying commanded.

(3) (A) On timely motion, the court by which a subpoena was issued shall quash or modify the subpoena if it

- (i) fails to allow reasonable time for compliance;
- (ii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to travel to a place more than 100 miles from the place where that person resides, is employed or regularly transacts business in person, except that, subject to the provisions of clause (c)(3)(B)(ii) of this rule, such a person may in order to attend trial be commanded to travel from any such place within the state in which the trial is held, or

- (iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter and no exception or waiver applies, or
- (iv) subject a person to undue burden.

(B) If a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unretained expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any party, or

(iii) requires a person who is not a party or an officer of a party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subject to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance or production only upon specified conditions.

(d) DUTIES IN RESPONDING TO SUBPOENA.

(1) A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents shall produce them as they are kept in the usual course of business or shall organize and label them to correspond with the categories in the demand.

(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation materials, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a description of the nature of the documents, communications, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to contest the claim.

11. All documents concerning any decision by any current or prospective customer to use HP-UX instead of OpenServer or UnixWare occurring after March 7, 2003.

12. All documents concerning any efforts to ensure or maintain the secrecy or confidentiality of any UNIX source code, know-how, concepts, techniques, or methods, including but not limited to: (a) any rule, policy, practice or procedure relating to the confidentiality or secrecy, or lack of confidentiality or secrecy, of any UNIX source code, know-how, concepts, techniques, or methods; any breach of any such rule, policy, practice or procedure; (c) the use by any person of any UNIX source code, know-how, concepts, techniques, or methods; and (d) the disclosure or availability of any UNIX source code, know-how, concepts, techniques, or methods to any person.

13. Documents sufficient to identify all licensees, sublicensees or assignees of any UNIX source code, know-how, concepts, techniques, or methods and all persons to whom any UNIX source code, know-how, concepts, techniques, or methods has been disclosed.

14. All documents concerning SCO's rights concerning UNIX or Linux.

15. All documents concerning any agreement or understanding (written or oral) concerning SCO.

16. All documents concerning any decision, plan or offer by Hewlett-Packard (contemplated or actual) to indemnify customers concerning SCO's alleged rights concerning UNIX or Linux.

17. A copy of all UNIX materials and all software materials (in electronic form, where available), including but not limited to source code and user manuals, obtained from SCO or any of SCO's predecessors in interest (including AT&T, USL, Novell or Tarantella).

Definitions and Instructions

Defendant IBM hereby incorporates by reference all instructions, definitions and rules contained in Rules 30, 33, 34, and 45 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the local rules or individual practices of this Court and supplements them with the following definitions and instructions:

A. Definitions

1. The term "communication" shall mean any transmittal of information, whether oral or written, including correspondence, electronic mail and other internet transmissions, web pages, Internet Relay Chat logs, telex, facsimile transmissions, telecopies, recordings in any medium of oral communication, telephone and message logs, notes or memoranda relating to written or oral communications.

2. The term “concerning” shall mean relating to, referring to, reflecting, describing, evidencing, referencing, discussing or constituting.

3. The term “document” shall be synonymous in meaning and usage to the broadest scope of the term used in Rule 34(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The term document shall include without limitation all written, phonic, graphic or recorded matter, including without limitation, information stored on computers, disks, tapes (i.e., magnetic or other storage media), World Wide Web pages, electronic mailing lists or automated fax support systems. The term “document” specifically includes electronic mail, electronic correspondence, or electronic peer-to-peer messages (“e-mail”) and any attachments and files created and maintained in electronic form in the normal course of business.

4. The term “include” or “including” shall mean including without limitation.

5. The term “object code” shall mean output from a compiler or assembler which is itself executable machine code or is suitable for processing to produce executable machine code.

6. The term “person” refers to natural persons or all private or public entities.

7. The term “Santa Cruz” shall mean and include, collectively and/or individually, The Santa Cruz Operation, Inc. and all its directors, officers, authorized agents, employees, consultants, attorneys, representatives, direct and indirect contractors, entities that were acquired by or merged with The Santa Cruz Operation, Inc., and/or all other persons acting on behalf of The Santa Cruz Operation, Inc.

8. The term "SCO" shall mean and include, collectively and/or individually, Caldera Systems, Inc., Caldera International, Inc., or The SCO Group, Inc., and all its directors, officers, authorized agents, employees, consultants, attorneys, sales representatives, distributors, dealers, direct and indirect contractors, entities that were in part or in whole acquired by or merged with Caldera Systems, Inc., Caldera International, Inc., or The SCO Group, Inc., affiliates, subsidiaries or predecessor companies of Caldera Systems, Inc., Caldera International, Inc., or The SCO Group, Inc., and/or all other persons acting on behalf of Caldera Systems, Inc., Caldera International, Inc., or The SCO Group, Inc. This includes the Server Software and Professional Services divisions acquired in 2001 by Caldera International, Inc. from Tarantella, Inc., f/k/a The Santa Cruz Operation, Inc.

9. The term "source code" shall mean the human-readable form of a computer program written in the original and preferred form for human inspection and modification, and includes but is not limited to source code listings; compiler and/or assembler output listings for such source code; source code listings for macros or "includes" (both executable and mapping) listings used in such source code; job control language files; and/or other files required to create an executable version of a program, including but not limited to user interface components; panels; screen definitions and help text; and c-lists.

10. The term "HP-UX" shall mean the UNIX-branded operating system distributed and/or developed by Hewlett-Packard, including all prior versions, releases and maintenance modifications.

11. The term "Hewlett-Packard" shall mean and include, collectively and/or individually, Hewlett-Packard Company and all its directors, officers, authorized agents, employees, consultants, attorneys, sales representatives, distributors, dealers, direct and indirect contractors, entities that were acquired by or merged with Hewlett-Packard, subsidiaries of Hewlett-Packard, and/or all other persons acting on behalf of Hewlett-Packard.

12. The term "UNIX" shall mean any and all versions, flavors, or other variants of any UNIX computer operating system, including but not limited to all operating systems certified as conforming to the UNIX-brand standards set by The Open Group, the owner of the UNIX trademark.

13. The term "AT&T" shall mean and include, collectively and/or individually, AT&T Corporation and all its directors, officers, authorized agents, employees, consultants, attorneys, sales representatives, direct and indirect contractors, entities that were acquired by or merged with AT&T, subsidiaries of AT&T, including but not limited to AT&T Technologies, Inc., and/or all other persons acting on behalf of AT&T.

14. The term "USL" shall mean and include, collectively and/or individually, UNIX Systems Laboratories, Inc. and all its directors, officers, authorized agents, employees, consultants, attorneys, sales representatives, direct and indirect contractors, entities that were acquired by or merged with USL, subsidiaries of USL, and/or all other persons acting on behalf of USL.

15. The term "Novell" shall mean and include, collectively and/or individually, Novell, Inc. and all its directors, officers, authorized agents, employees, consultants, attorneys, sales representatives, direct and indirect contractors, entities that were acquired by or merged with Novell, subsidiaries of Novell, and/or all other persons acting on behalf of Novell.

16. The term "Tarantella" shall mean and include, collectively and/or individually, Tarantella, Inc. and all its directors, officers, authorized agents, employees, consultants, attorneys, sales representatives, direct and indirect contractors, entities that were acquired by or merged with Tarantella, subsidiaries of Tarantella, and/or all other persons acting on behalf of Tarantella.

B. Instructions

1. Each paragraph should herein be construed independently and, unless otherwise directed, without reference to any other paragraph for the purpose of limitation.

2. The use of any definition for the purposes of this request shall not be deemed to constitute an agreement or acknowledgment on the part of defendant that such definition is accurate, meaningful or appropriate for any other purpose in this action.

3. Unless otherwise specified, the documents requested are the responsive documents in your possession, control or custody that were prepared, written, sent, dated, received, applicable or in effect at any time up to the date of your compliance with this demand.

4. Each requested document shall be produced in its entirety. If a document responsive to any request cannot be produced in full, it shall be produced to the extent possible with an explanation stating why production of the remainder is not possible.

5. Each page or sheet produced is to be marked with a consecutive document control number.

6. All documents produced in response to this subpoena shall be produced in the same order as they are kept or maintained in the ordinary course of business and, where attached, shall not be separated or disassembled.

7. With respect to any document responsive to this request that is withheld from production based upon a claim of privilege, please provide the information required pursuant to Rules 26(b)(5) and 45(d)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

8. If, for reasons other than a claim of privilege, you refuse to produce any document requested herein, state the grounds upon which the refusal is based with sufficient specificity to permit a determination of the propriety of such refusal.

9. If there are no documents responsive to any paragraph or subparagraph set forth in the requests, please provide a written response so stating.
